FOR THE ALUMNI OF SAINT JOSEPH'S COLLEGE

Vol. 12 - No. 5

Collegeville, Indiana

February, 1950

NFCCS Officers and Moderator

Anna Popa, of Nazareth College, vice-president of the Fort Wayne Region, Jo Ann Madler, of Saint Mary-of-the-Woods College, president-elect of the region, and John W. Lynch, chairman of the National Press Commission, chat with the Rev. Joseph Scheuer, moderator of the local NFCCS chapter, at the recent NFCCS Regional Congress.

Fred Jones Takes Wedding Vows In College Chapel Ceremony

The College Chapel was the scene of an unusual ceremony, Saturday morning, Feb. 18, when Mr. J. Fred Jones, instructor in physical education here, married Miss Rosemary Longstreth, of Wheatfield, Ind., in a double ring ceremony. The ceremony marked the first wedding in our chapel in more than five years. Celebrant of the Nuptial High Mass was the Rev. Donald Hardebeck, pastor of Sorrows Mother church, Wheatfield. A tenor soloist sang "Panis Angelicus" at the Offertory, "Ave Verum" at the Communion, and "On This Day O Beautiful Mother" as the bride placed her corsage of red roses at the feet of Our Blessed Lady at a side altar.

The new Mrs. Jones is a registered nurse and before her marriage was employed at the Jasper County Hospital, Rensselaer.

Fred, an alumnus of St. Joseph's, served with the United States Marine Corp during the war, and then returned to Collegeville to become line coach of the Puma football squad. He also directs the very successful intramural sports program on the campus.

CONTACT! extends congratulations and sincere wishes for a long and happy wedded life to the Jones'.

Juniors Work On Spring Prom

The Junior Class has begun work on the annual Spring Prom, scheduled for the night of May 20. As yet, there has been no definite choice of an orchestra, but several dance bands are being considered, and a decision should be made in the near future. Tentative plans for theme and decorations were laid at a class meeting held last evening. As usual, the affair will be formal.

Alumni, Students Meet in Chicago

Members of the Cook County Chapter were hosts to about 30 St. Joe students, members of the Chicago Club on the campus, at the regular bi-monthly meeting of the chapter on Jan. 31. After the usual business meeting, the Chicago alumni and their "younger brothers" enjoyed a social evening. Another such gathering is planned for Easter Monday, at Sieben's.

Region Congress Held on Campus

St. Joseph's was host to the Fort Wayne Region of the National Federation of Catholic College Students February 11-12, when the seventh annual regional congress was held here.

During the two-day session the delegates listened to inspiring talks by Mr. Thomas Brickley, of St. Vincent's College, Latrobe, Pa., national president of the NFCCS, the Rev. James Conroy, associate editor of OUR SUNDAY VISITOR, and the Rev. Leo Pursley, pastor of St. John the Baptist parish, Ft. Wayne.

The Rec Hall was the scene of an informal dance, Saturday evening, attended by the delegates to the congress and local students. It was the first of a series of dances sponsored by the Student Council.

Sixteen Included On Honor List

Sixteen students have merited special recognition for superior achievement during the first semester. Those included on the Dean's List have made a scholastic index of 2.50 or better at the semester grading period, and had a B average also on the mid-semester grade report.

Seniors Charles E. Esterhammer, Chicago, James R. Heiny, Ft. Wayne, and James H. Stang, Dayton, Ohio; Junior Henry B. Croak, Harvard, Ill.; Sophomores John R. Bassett, Peoria, Ill., John A. Naab, Rock Island, Ill., Joseph A. Peters, Mansfield, Ohio, Hugh D. Schadle, Russell, Ky., Raymond H. Schultheis, Verona, Pa., Joseph A. Sebastiani, Cincinnati, Ohio, and Arthur J. Vonderhaar, Ft. Wayne; Freshmen John A. Brown, Buffalo, N.Y., Robert J. Hummel, North Vernon, Ind., Michael A. Nassr, Toledo, Ohio, Eugene A. Rueve, Toledo, Ohio, and Richard J. Vossler, Wapakoneta, Ohio.

The following, whose scholastic ratings fall within the range 2.25-2.49, are accorded honorable mention: Seniors Thomas H. Fedewa, Wabash, Ind., James E. Pawloski, Flint, Mich., Victor F. Toeppe, Millersville, Ohio, and Leo L. Tonner, Rensselaer, Ind.; Juniors David L. Coady, Kokomo, Ind., George E. Peters, Whiting, Ind., Paul R. Scheiber, Huntington, Ind., and Edward A. Tomko, Cleveland, Ohio; Sophomores Robert J. Eder, North Vernon, Ind., John W. Ewry, Portland, Ind., Edward J. Joyce, Cleveland, Ohio, Joseph E. Lazur, Whiting, Ind., and Ernest W. Ranly, Cassella, Ohio; Freshmen Daniel P. Deneau, Kankakee, Ill., and Eugene A. Ziemba, Chicago.

NOTICE

The meeting of Jubilee Class secretaries, scheduled for Feb. 26, was postponed to a later date. Secretaries will be notified of the date.

Mardi Gras Ball Held in Local Gym

Daubing a splash of traditional pre-lenten color onto Collegeville, the Lake County Club sponsored a Mardi Gras dance, February 18, for Collegeville students.

Ohioans Choose Chapter Leaders

The alumni of the Midwestern Ohio Chapter elected officers at their regular meeting on Feb. 15. By unanimous vote the new officers are Dr. Ed Westerheide, ex-'08, president; Lamont Hoyng, '27, vice president; Henry J. Leungers, ex-'39, secretary-treasurer; Emil Goettemoeller, ex-'18, and Joseph Raterman, '38, members of the executive committee. A third member of this committee will be named by the President of the College.

Special guests at the meeting were the Very Rev. Alfred J. Zanolar, president, and the Rev. Joseph Otte, treasurer, of St. Joseph's. Father Zanolar addressed the 80 alumni and their wives, and brought them a picture of the progress the college has made in the last few years. Father Otte urged his listeners to help recruit students for St. Joseph's, pointing out that the college can accommodate 100 more students. Movies of the college, showing old scenes, new buildings, classroom work and sports, followed.

The meeting was held in the auditorium of St. Henry High School, with the Rev. John Martin, '16, as host. A buffet lunch and vocal numbers by the St. Henry choir, under the direction of Myron Huelsman, '34, brought the evening to a close.

Fort Laramie has been tentatively chosen as the site for the next regular meeting of the chapter.

New Infirmarian Comes to Campus

Dwenger Hall, campus Health Center, now houses a new dispenser of pills and salves. Brother Camillus has assumed the duties of infirmarian, replacing Brother Denis, recently transferred to St. Charles Seminary, Carthage, Ohio.

Brother Camillus, a smiling, jovial man, has been a member of the Society of the Precious Blood for 11 years. His first assignment was as assistant infirmarian at St. Charles, Carthage. In 1941 he was placed in charge of the infirmary at Brunnerdale Seminary, Canton, Ohio, and last week took over in Dwenger Hall at St. Joseph's.

In addition to eliminating Collegeville's aches and pains, Brother Camillus is studying laboratory technique under Dr. Ceicys.

Brother Denis, our late master of pills and bottles, came to St. Joseph's in September, 1947, after his religious profession at St. Charles. Before entering the brotherhood in the Society, he had seen service in the army.

The festivities began on Friday night with the St. Joe-Indiana State basketball game in the Puma field house. That game was the last on the home floor for the Cardinal and Purple.

On Saturday night, the field house became a ballroom, housing the Mardi Gras dance. More than 150 couples danced to the "Society Styled" melodies of Renold Young and his orchestra. Hats and noisemakers were distributed to enhance the carnival spirit.

The decorations combined a ferris wheel and merry-go-round backdrop. Balloons, hung from a false ceiling of bright crepe paper, emphasized the theme. A wishing-well completed the setting.

Sanguinist Brother Celebrates Jubilee

Congratulations are being extended to Brother Herman Fehrenbach on the Golden Jubilee of his religious profession as a Brother in the Society of the Precious Blood. On Feb. 3 a Solemn High Mass of thanksgiving was celebrated by the Very Rev. Herbert G. Kramer, General of the Society, at St. Charles Seminary, Carthage, Ohio, where the jubilarian has been stationed since 1922.

Brother Herman graduated from St. Joseph's in 1898, and returned to the campus for the 1948 Alumni Reunion to celebrate the 50th anniversary of graduation with his classmates.

CONTACT! extends the good wishes of all alumni to the venerable jubilarian for a speedy return to good health following a serious operation recently, and for many more years of service to God and his community.

Talk on Catholicism By Fr. Kennedy, S.J. Given in Rec Hall

The Rev. John S. Kennedy, S.J., nationally known literary figure, gave an informal address Thursday night, Feb. 9, in the Rec Hall. His topic was "The Genius of Catholicism."

Revolving his subject around the powerful thought, "the Church knows what is in man," Father Kennedy showed how the Church has weathered the storm of extreme heresies down through the centuries. He cited examples of such contradictory fallacies as Puritanism and Hedonism, Lutheranism and Anthropomorphism, and showed in contrast to the extremes these exemplified the level-headed approach given these problems by the Catholic Church.

After his talk, Father Kennedy held a short question and answer session, and then met and conversed informally with the faculty and students.

That H-Bomb Again

Recently, a high potentate in the ranks of science stated that an explosion of a helium-powered bomb would be the next worse thing to complete world suicide. Those who aren't killed by the big bust will wish they were.

The old, crude, almost obsolete atomic bomb, apparently, is just a limited pittance against this new boob-boom. It's something like comparing a small boy with weak lungs and a bean-blower to a battery of high-powered artillery weapons.

A single atomic bomb (one of the first crude ones) was enough to wipe out a large city. That was shown twice, with disastrous results, in Japan.

This new exterminator, which combines the old style bomb with some heavy hydrogen to produce a result of fusion, rather than fission, has limitless possibilities. That means it can kill any number of people. Atomic fission has potentialities as a peaceable source of power. Fusion of heavy hydrogen, however, results in nothing but death and maiming. The power it generates cannot be harnessed and put to work.

As if this weren't enough, it is also claimed by many of those who should know that a hydrogen explosion would present a lethal danger to every living thing—plant, animal, and that so-called rational being, man. The deadly particles and rays liberated by such a big bang would permeate the atmosphere and linger around for many years, making this favorite planet of ours one of the less desirable places in the universe.

That might lessen the chances for an invasion from Mars—the Martians wouldn't risk it—but this writer doesn't think it's worth it.

A few months ago, we were faced with the situation of two unfriendly nations, each possessing atomic super bombs. Now we have the same cast, with a change in props. Both nations have the means and the ability to produce hydrogen super-duper bombs. We hope that the future won't bring some sort of triple-threat destroyer.

We also hope—and this is a sincere and heartfelt desire—that the world will never know what the hydrogen bomb is really like. We hope that the world will soon realize what it needs, and take to heart the advice of Our Lady of Fatima. We hope and pray for peace!

New Indiana Conference

Representatives of St. Joseph's, Butler, Indiana State, Ball State, Valparaiso and Evansville met on Friday, Feb. 17, in Terre Haute to discuss the formation of a new Indiana College Conference. The representatives took the first definite action toward the formation by referring the matter to their respective boards of directors, athletic departments and faculty committees.

With the details ironed out between the various schools, it is believed that the new conference has a strong chance of coming into being. Of the six colleges mentioned, only Ball State and Indiana State have decisions for joining another conference on the fire. Both schools have been asked to join a conference composed of Illinois and Michigan colleges.

It is hoped that the formation of the proposed conference, with St. Joseph's as a member, will create greater interest in in athletics here and boost gate receipts both at home and on the road.

Death Summons

Two Alumni

Fred G. Coffield, '10, prominent South Bend business man, died Jan. 28, after an extended illness. Mr. Coffield completed his Commercial Course at St. Joseph's, took a further business training, and had been manager of a South Bend Investment Company for a long period of time. During the first World War he was elevated to the rank of First Lt. in the Infantry, and received both United States and French decorations. He is survived by his wife and three children, all of whom live in South Bend.

On January 31, Andrew B. Eisenhower, '22, former Huntington resident, but since 1929 located at Portland, Oregon, died in that city after several months illness. After attending St. Joseph's Academy from 1918 to 1920, Andy finished at Huntington High School and was associated with his father in business; later he was with the Standard Oil Co. Before the illness which claimed his life he had been employed by the Kaiser Ship Builders. He is survived by the widow and five children at home, as well as many relatives in Huntington, Ind.

Local NFCCS Men

Speak at Workshop

The Rev. Joseph Scheuer, moderator of the St. Joe chapter of the NFCCS, and John W. Lynch, chairman of the National Press Commission, with Mr. Maurice Fischer, assistant city editor of the Chicago Daily News, were guest speakers last Sunday, Feb. 5, at the Chicago Regional Press Commission Workshop at De Paul University.

Mr. Fischer keynoted the theme of the workshop with a frank emphasis of the importance, extent and need of a strong Catholic Press in the United States. Father Scheuer and John Lynch discussed the "Freedom of the Catholic Collegiate Press" and "Secularism in the Catholic Collegiate Press".

The workshop included delegates from Loyola, De Paul, Mundelein, St. Francis of Joliet, St. Xavier, Baret, Notre Dame, Rosary and Lewis Colleges.

Father Scheuer and Lynch, by invitation of Mr. Fischer, will be guest speakers early in March before the Gabriel Guild, a group of Catholic journalists, publicists, and public relations men in the Chicago archdiocese.

Semi-Monthly Dances

Planned by Council For After Easter

Regular semi-monthly dances on campus are soon to be a part of St. Joseph's College activities. In a meeting Saturday, Feb. 4, the Student Council completed plans for the affairs. The first dance was held on Feb. 11 in conjunction with the NFCCS Regional Congress.

After Lent, the dances will be held every other Saturday night, in the recreation hall. Admission will be fifty cents.

Until now, the deterrent factor in the promotion of these dances has been the remarkable lack of dancing partners for the Collegeville men. The Student Council is now inviting these partners from various Catholic girl's colleges in the vicinity. The girls will come from colleges in the Chicago and central Indiana regions, by bus, every other Saturday, and reign as queens of the rec hall until 11 p.m.

Guided by Mr. George LaMountain, executive moderator, the social activities committee of the Student Council will sponsor the dances.

St. Joe Drops
Wabash Tilt

Wabash College dealt St. Joe's Pumas their third straight defeat, Feb. 11, with a 61-48 lacing at Crawfordsville. Guard Bob Risley of Wabash led all scorers with 20 markers; Bob Dwyer popped in 15 for St. Joe.

Wabash led all the way in a game which the Pumas had expected to win. The Little Giants possessed a 30-21 lead at halftime and were able to nurse it along until the end.

Some explanation of the rather surprising defeat may hinge on the fact St. Joe was playing its fourth game of a hectic week, which saw the Pumas meet teams like St. Norbert, Valparaiso, and Loras.

Indiana State Hands
St. Joe 70-53 Loss

The Indiana State Sycamores handed St. Joe's Pumas their fourth straight trouncing Friday, Feb. 17, in the field house to run their all-time margin over the Pumas to 13 victories against one loss. State's Lenny Rzeszewski led the 70-53 onslaught with 18 points. Capt. Ray Patterson pumped in 16 for the home team.

The early inability of the Sycamores to score kept the game close in the early stages. St. Joe held first-half leads of 8-4, 14-10, and 20-19, until the smooth-working visitors pulled even at 21-all and finally went ahead to stay just before halftime, 37-26.

Loras Hawks Clinch
Share of Loop Crown

The Loras College Duhawks clinched at least a tie in the Midlands Conference race, Feb. 10, when they ran away from St. Joseph's Pumas in the second half to win, 77-64.

Led by their high-scoring forward, Jim McCabe, and their speedy little guard, Jack Rohan, who scored 20 points apiece, the Duhawks pulled out of a one-point lead at halftime to pick off another 40 and win going away. Center Jack Dwyer led Puma scorers with 19 points, followed by the dependable Jack Wilz with 15.

Although Loras led handily through almost the entire first half, St. Joe came roaring back to take a one-point edge early in the third period. The lead changed hands several times after this, but Loras finally went ahead with a spurge over the tiring Pumas. The game marked the ninth meeting between the two schools, with Loras holding a 5-4 edge. St. Joe has dropped the last three in a row to the Duhawks, two of the scores being identical, 77-64.

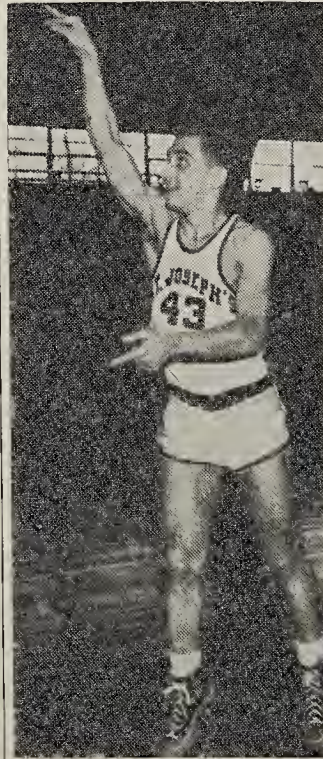

The Pumas won their second straight Midlands Conference game by defeating St. Norbert's Green Knights, 76-74, in a thrilling overtime battle, Monday, Feb. 6. A tip-in shot by Jack Wilz tied the score at 68-68 as the horn blew ending the regular playing time.

GEORGE PETERS

St. Joe's All-Time Cage Lineup
Includes Stars of Four Decades

In the early records of St. Joseph's a representative basketball team is first mentioned for the year 1906. That first team made a very humble debut in a brace of games. By the 1910-'11 school year the number of basketball games exceeded the appearances of the baseball varsity. And this enthusiasm for the sport has grown apace with the years at Collegeville, just as it has gripped the rest of the country. Every St. Joe fan who takes his place in the field house year after year is quick to compare the current edition with the fives of the past, and sometimes tries to picture an all-time championship team.

Richard W. Heinlen, a director of Production and Design, Fisher Body Division of General Motors, favored us with this picture of the III Commercial First Team of 1910. It was back in 1925 that Mr. Heinlen joined General Motors, having gone to the Motor City from his home town Garrett, Ind. The players are, Front, L. to R., Al J. Scharf, Leo McGurran, Louis Horn; Back, L. to R., Richard Heinlen, Max C. Toner, James R. Rodgers, Syl J. Hiss, Ed Horn.

With this in mind, the editors of CONTACT! have gone through records, asked oldtimers, and dusted off memories to bring to alumni readers a representative all-time lineup. The players on our team are men of the early teens, the glorious 20s and 30s, and the "war-horse" 40s. Naturally the greater number of outstanding players come from the 40s, when the Pumas came into the picture, and teams were subjected to schedules that called for a squad of 16 or more.

Although, in choosing from a group of stars, there is little difference in the ability of first and second teams, we would like to have them in their prime, and open with Capt. Herbert Weier and Neal Mosser in the forward slots, Paul Deery tipping off at center, with Alphonse Hoffman and Bernard Hoffman advancing the ball across the center line. With that combination we have a dream quintet of never-say-die spirit, dazzling floor play, uncanny pivot shooting, powerful rebounding and trojan-like guarding,—all six-footers or better. Our first stringers are men whom we would not like to see playing against us. Rounding out the first squad are Dick Scharf, Ferd Wellman and Jerry Yocis, all of whom won several letters in Cardinal and Purple uniforms, and could easily be substituted without weakening the opening combination.

The editors of CONTACT! will be glad to hear from St. Joe fans "for or against" and, although we are unable to promise, next year's edition may bear the fruits of alumni comments. At the moment there are a few of the crop of seniors battering on the door of fame; they will have to be considered carefully in choosing an all-time team when another season rolls around.

Pumas Hold De Paul
To 74-64 Victory

It was a battle all the way before the Pumas bowed to De Paul by a 74-64 count Wednesday, Feb. 1, in the field house, but a slow start in the early minutes of the game kept the Pumas from causing Coach Ray Meyer and his charges plenty of concern.

A red-hot pair of cagers by the names of Bato Govedarica and Clem Pavilonis set the pace in a torrid first half for De Paul. The score at halftime was 41-29.

Little George
Makes Big Hit
With Puma Fans

They used to call him "Big George" because he played the center position and controlled the rebounds for St. John the Baptist's Parochial basketball team of Whit- ing, Ind. George Peters was 5-feet, 10-inches tall in the seventh grade, and he's still 5-feet, 10-inches tall today, but the stoppage in growth hasn't kept him from becoming one of Indiana's better college basketball players.

Basketball wasn't George's first when he enrolled at George Rogers Clark of Hammond. "I was headed to be a star football player," said George, "that is, until I hurt my knee in a scrimmage. After that basketball season came along, and I just stuck with that from high school sophomore on."

One of Top Scorers

And Peters has really come a long way since that decision made in 1945. He ranks as one of the top 15 scorers in the state, banging in 259 points in 19 games for a 13.1 average at St. Joseph's—and the season isn't over. Not only can George cage them from the field, but he has shown uncanny accuracy at the free-throw stripe as well. On 94 charity attempts Peters has made the opposition feel chagrin on 73 occasions—a percentage of .776.

"I remember I used to have a lot of trouble with my free throws when I was in high school, so I would take half of my lunch period from 12:30 until 1:00 o'clock and just shoot free throws in the gym. That's when I first switched from the two-handed set shot to a one-hander. I was the first on the team to try it, and pretty soon everybody was shooting them with one hand."

Uses Floor Board

When queried as to his secret in sinking free-throws, George said, "When we play in the field house here at St. Joe, I got a board on the gym floor that I line up with. I get my right arm and right eye even with the basket and my body to the left. I shoot and just feel that it's going in."

Peters likes to play a good brand of basketball and gets a kick out of doing it. Whether he wins or loses doesn't make much difference if he hasn't played good ball. "Like the St. Norbert's game that we won in overtime. I didn't feel too happy about it because we played sloppy ball." And this is what coaches refer to when they say, "Give me a heart and soul ball player."

It wasn't until midway in his sophomore year that Coach Art Cosgrove gave Peters his big chance, and Art is mighty glad he did now. George went out and scored 20 points that night, and hasn't been out of the lineup since.

Alumni Quickies

Two distinguished alumni priests of the diocese of Ft. Wayne have been honored by the Holy Father. The Rt. Rev. John A. Sullivan, '06, pastor of Holy Angels' parish, Gary, and the Rt. Rev. Charles J. Feltes, '20, chancellor of the diocese, were invested at ceremonies coincidental with the dedication of the new Holy Angels' church, Gary. With His Excellency, Bishop Noll presiding, Msgr. Sullivan was celebrant of the Solemn High Mass, assisted by the Rev. James Elliott, '31, deacon, and the Rev. Albert H. Van Nevel, '38, subdeacon. Without fear of contradiction, it can be said that the new Holy Angels' church is the most beautiful edifice in the diocese, and Msgr. Sullivan is to be congratulated on his zeal and leadership in the work of building this outstanding example of English-Gothic architecture. . . . In his first appointment as pastor the Rev. Paul Galliger, '27, goes to Our Lady of the Rosary church, Greenhills, Cincinnati. Before becoming a Navy Chaplain, Father Galliger was assistant at St. Agnes, Cincinnati, St. Patrick's, London, and Holy Trinity, Cincinnati. Following three years in the service, he was assigned to Sts. Peter and Paul's, Norwood. CONTACT! congratulates the new pastor and wishes him many happy years in that capacity. . . . "Sooner or later 'pop' will give me a job," very likely was the thought in the mind of Charles S. Gray, ex-'42. Anyway, after letting son Charles work in the machine shop for a number of years, his father has advanced him to sales representative for the Gray Automatic Lock Co. Charles paid the alumni office a visit on a return trip from the West recently. He lives in Amherst, Ohio, and among his big tasks is that of providing for three young Grays. . . . An oldtimer, Joseph B. Trentman, '00, reported in these columns as being on the "lost" list, is manager of a filling station in Ft. Wayne. . . . Following two and a half years' service in the Pacific, Lawrence W. Monahan, '40, returned to Cornvallis, Wash., and shook off the ill effects of malaria. Taking advantage of G.I. education, Lawrence is now doing post-graduate work in education and hopes to be ready for a teaching position in the near future. . . . When Ernest Hoyng, '23, came from the Pumas' sizzling 47-45 victory over Ball State Teachers, Jan. 21, he recalled, "that is the way we did it 27 years ago." Perhaps Ernie was thinking of the game he helped win over South Bend Business College, 24-22, or of the night St. Joe went wild and thumped Loyola U., 30-13, holding them without a basket in that memorable first half. Hugh Kirk was coaching the eagers that season, and prided himself in being able to "put two good teams on the floor." . . . Bobby Burns is on his way to literary fame, but this time it is a St. Joe alumnus, Robert T. Burns, '49, Indianapolis, who is climbing the ladder. The Bobbs-Merrill Co., has announced that Bob's first novel, "The Perfect Invader," will be off the press in March. It is a story of the author's experiences in Austria as a member of the occupation forces. At St. Joe's Bob was a proficient law student, and is now a clerk in the U.S. Census Bureau. Success is our hope for "The Perfect Invader." . . . The first outside coach on record at Collegeville, Fred Putts, who guided the Cardinal and Purple in the fall of 1914, died of uremia poisoning on Jan. 24. Coach Putts tutored the local gridders a year after he starred at Rensselaer High. Carl Gordon, '16, was manager of the team, and the backfield stalwarts were led by the Rev. John Bruin, '17, and Joseph McLaughlin, ex-'18. . . . Wedding bells rang out on Feb. 18 for Warren C. Freeman, '48, of Indianapolis, when he married Miss Audrey Hering in St. Christopher's church, Rocky River, Ohio. . . . The same melodies pealed for Arthur Hootor, ex-'44, on Dec. 28, when Miss Patricia Lee Jones became his bride in St. Margaret of Scotland church, St. Louis. The Hootors are living at 4219 Neosha in that city until Arthur graduates from St. Louis U. . . . The appointment of Thomas F. Jordan, '47, of Indianapolis, as health information secretary of the Marion County Tuberculosis Association was announced recently. Tom will start a year-round voluntary speakers' bureau as part of the association's program of adult health education. . . . Can you imagine Ed Finan, '40, who had never been farther away from Cincinnati than Washington, D.C. (!) a few years back, transferring bag, baggage, family, loyalty and all to Detroit? In writing to former classmates, Ed had to admit that he lost a letter that contained precious chances on the NFCCS Plymouth, raffled at the February Congress. We have the new Motor City man's promise that he too "will do everything possible" to assist in the organization of St. Joseph's alumni in the Detroit area. . . . Only recently the alumni office was informed of the death of Frank Bertke, '10, St. Henry, Ohio, about a year ago, and that of Joseph Gordon, '13, Washington, Ind., late in December. . . . Bill Fox, '49, has left the old hometown in favor of Mansfield, Ohio, where he is assistant sports' editor on the "Mansfield News-Journal."

Council Sponsors Informal Dance

The first of a series of dances in the Recreation Hall, sponsored by the Student Council, was held Saturday, Feb. 11. A relatively small number of girls was present, with an almost limitless choice of Collegeville dancing partners. George Bobalik, of the Council's social committee, was student manager and Mr. George LaMountain the faculty advisor. Mr. and Mrs. Steve Theodosios served as host and hostess. The girls were delegates to the NFCCS convention being held on St. Joseph's campus. At 11 p.m. the NFCCS gave away a Plymouth automobile, the prize for the drive it has been conducting for the Overseas Service Program. The winning ticket holder was Mr. Knoerzer, manager of the recreation hall. The next dance will be held on St. Patrick's Day. Girls from St. Francis College, of Joliet, are being invited to it.

Pillowmen Pace Xavier Circuit

With two rounds completed in the senior circuit of Xavier Hall's basketball league, the Yodeling Pillows are in the driver's seat. Although the Pillowmen have suffered one defeat recently, they have not relaxed in their determination to cop the championship. The Screwballs, in second place, have consistently displayed a fine brand of ball but have had the misfortune of losing some heart-breaking games, despite their stellar play. They seem to lack the necessary push in the final minutes of play to make theirs a winning aggregation. Leo Matusicky's 3x5s have found the going tough and have won only one game in four starts. But with the acquisition of Joe Sebastiani, the team should be strengthened to make a better showing for the rest of the season. In the junior circuit Paul Sattler's fighting Hankies command a comfortable lead. To date they have lost one game, a close one to the Bou'nders. All tied up, with two wins and four losses, in second place, are the Boulders and the Bug-a-boos. Although they lag behind the Hankies, both teams have played such fine ball in their last few tilts that they may yet give the leaders a run for their money.

Pumas End Cage Season on Road

The last two hurdles of the 1949-'50 basketball season remain before St. Joe's entry, both of them on the road and both representing previous victims of the Pumas. Next Monday night, St. Joe travels to the home of the Illinois Wesleyan Titans, who fell to Art Cosgrove's boys at Collegeville last Dec. 8, 49-45. Naturally, Wesleyan does not relish the memory of the defeat and revenge would seem to be the motive. Last year, the Titans beat the Pumas on Wesleyan's own floor by a score of 66-51. The last game of the year and also the final Midlands tilt of the campaign, finds St. Joe invading the northland of West De Pere, Wis., in an attempt to repeat their thrilling overtime victory of Feb. 6, when they had to stay after school to beat the Green Knights, 76-74.
